

The K-LOVE Radio Station serves the public in an encouraging way, and it would be a shame to lose that positive influence due to it being displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming. Although there are such diverse religious beliefs (and non-beliefs) in our country, I believe that K-LOVE is a great station that helps many people get through tough days, tough times, and encourages all of us to be happy and love one another.